24.	Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The Department of BBA, through HR Club: YUKTHI, organized an event titled Pitch Perfect. A debate-oriented activity aimed at enhancing students' public speaking and presentation skills within the HR domain. The event encouraged participants to articulate their perspectives with clarity, confidence and logical reasoning. Engaging in HR-related discussions, students demonstrated subject knowledge while refining critical thinking, persuasive communication and the ability to respond to counterarguments. This interactive platform not only promoted learning beyond the classroom but also prepared students to bridge academic knowledge with real-world HR practices, shaping them into effective communicators and future decision-makers in their professional careers.
