This session was really eye opening and helped us figure out more opportunities and choices that we, as students can take in the future.

It really helped us gain knowledge about the various courses and different paths that we can choose from. It helped us overcome our fear of competitive exams and gave us the confidence to choose & pursue our ambitions further.

They helped us understand the different levels of the exams and also different options of subjects available to us which gave us a sense of freedom to pursue what we wish to with no fear and doubt.

We would like to thank the faculty that gave us the chance to attend such a valuable lecture and also the respected guests who helped us understand and also assure us of the help they would give us in the future too.

The workshop dated on 19th September organised by the competitive examination cell was very insightful. We got to learn from the director of INDIA4IAS about the various opportunities that lies above us through competitive exams like civil services. This session opened up a wide range of opportunities to pursue and render service to our country.

Thank You
Niriksha P Shetty
