24.	Summary of the Event	The Department of Computer Applications conducted a seminar on Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Machine Learning (ML) on 13rd August 2025 under Career Guidance and Placement Unit. Renowned Experts from the tech industry were invited to share insights on current trends and importance role of AI and ML in present Generation. The session covered key topics such as RAG, Data Analyst, Importing Data from Various Sources and real-world applications with Examples. Students and faculty actively participated, engaging in interactive discussions and Q&A sessions. The seminar aimed to enhance awareness and understanding of these emerging technologies. Overall, it was an informative and inspiring event that encouraged students to explore AI and ML further.

"Seminar on Artifical Intelligence and Machine Learning"

Date: 13-8-2025   Course: BCA Vth sem

The session was very interesting and informative. We got know much about building of the chatbots. It was a very meaningful session.

U03CJ23S00068

Pookruthi.B

This Session was very useful and it extended our knowledge in Data Science and AI. We learnt a lot about different kinds of AI models.

U03CJ23S0066

Prajakta K.V

The Session helped expand ~~on~~ our knowledge on ~~the~~ AI & ML it was a ~~kno~~ insightfull Session which acted as a guiding light, for us to choose our interests.
