24.	Summary of the Event	The Department of Computer Applications, BCA, organized a "Mock Interview" to prepare final-year students for upcoming campus recruitment and placement opportunities. The session focused on resume preparation, self-introduction, communication skills, interview etiquette, professional body language, and commonly asked HR and technical interview questions. Students were trained to confidently present their skills, academic achievements, projects, and career goals. Practical activities and simulated interview practices helped students understand the interview process and identify areas for improvement. Overall, the session enhanced students' confidence, communication abilities, and interview readiness.
