Summary of the Event	The Department of B.Com, Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science & Commerce organized "Inter Collegiate Fest - APOGEE 2025" under the guidance of cultural committee (AMEYA) and student activity cell (SANCHALANA) on 25th and 26th April 2025 in the college premise. The college fest was a vibrant celebration of student's talent, creativity and enthusiasm. The event featured a diverse range of performance including music, dance, drama and management events. The fest started with a grand inaugural ceremony, lighting of the lamp by respected dignitaries, setting the tone for a spectacular celebration. The UG students from various colleges across Bengaluru participated in the competition held during this fest. The program was well organized and became an unforgettable experience for all involved. This program was a resounding success.

Apogee was an exceptionally well-organized event that truly showcased the talent and creativity of our college. The variety of competitions and activities kept everyone engaged and enthusiastic through the day. The cultural performances were vibrant and added a lively, festive atmosphere to the entire event. The event management team did an excellent job ensuring smooth coordination and timely execution of all programs. Apogee successfully created a platform for students to showcase their skills, build confidence, and make lasting memories.

The overall planning and coordination of the event were commendable. The schedule. The range of events was diverse technical cultural etc. The invited speakers and workshops added great value. The volunteers were enthusiastic and helpful. The venue was well decorated. Tech support was mostly reliable. There were minor disturbances in sound system which was immediately taken care of.

Registration was smooth and event started on time. The food stalls were well curated, offering a good variety. We all enjoyed the event.
