Feedback

The pre-placement talk and internship recruitment drive was very helpful in understanding both the company and the available internship opportunities. The session clearly explained the different roles, required skills and expectations from students. I found the details about the internship structure, real-time projects and growth opportunities especially useful, as it gave me a practical idea of industry exposure. The presentation was clean and interactive, which made it easy to follow. Overall, the event provided good guidance and increased my interest in applying for the internship.

Feedback

The pre-placement talk and internship drive was a valuable experience for me as a student. It gave me a clear insight into how the recruitment process works and what companies expect from candidates. The information about different internship roles and the opportunity to work on real projects was very motivating. I also appreciated how the speaker shared practical tips on improving our skills to match industry needs. Overall, the session helped me gain confidence and a better understanding of how to prepare for future career opportunities.
