Feedback.

The session "Decode the Drive : The Placement Journey, from Seniors to Juniors" was highly informative and engaging.

Listening to our seniors share their real-life placement experiences provided us with a clear and practical understanding of the recruitment process. The tips on aptitude preparation, technical interviews, resume building and HR rounds were extremely valuable. The session helped to reduce anxiety about Placement.

I truly appreciate the efforts of the Placement unit and hope for more such sessions to enhance our readiness.

Feedback

The session was truly motivating and insightful, offering a great learning experience for all of us. Listening to our seniors share their placement journeys along with tips and strategies, gave us a clearer picture of what to expect and how to prepare effectively. It helped boost our confidence and reduce anxiety about the placement process. We are grateful to the Placement unit for organizing such a valuable session and look forward to more opportunities for peer learning and guidance.
