FEEDBACK

NCC Ewent - CATC, Naval Wing 2026.

I as an NCC Naval Wing cadet of 1 KAR & GOA Naval Unit, feel honoured to have participated in the Combined Annual Training Camp (CATC) - Naval Wing 2026, held from 8th May to 17th May, 2026 at Christ University, Kengeri for a period of 10 days. CATC is an annual NCC Camp where cadets from multiple unit/company come together for rigorous military, naval, and character-building training.

The camp followed a strict daily schedule starting at 5:30 AM, with PT, parade drills, lectures, and practical sessions. Drill and parade training was the backbone of the camp - slow march, quick march, saluting and arms drills were practised daily. By the end of the camp, the improvement in our bearing and synchronisation was clearly visible.

The cultural evening on Day 7 was a remarkable break - cadets from all units performed dance, skills, & songs. Competitions and sports added a great competitive spirit to the camp. Boat pulling - volleyball, tug of war help us unwind our bond as team.

Overall, CATC 2026 was an experience that strengthened my discipline, patriotism & sense. I am grateful to be part of camp.

Jai Hind !!

NCC event - CATC, Naval Wing 2026.

I as an NCC Naval Wing cadet of 1 KAR & GOA Naval Unit, feel honoured of participating as an NCC cadet towards CATC held from 8th May to 17 May 2026 at CHRIST UNIVERSITY, Kengeri. It was a 10-day camp that brought together cadets from different units for naval training & character-building.

The camp had lectures with physical training, saluting. The drills, training session were useful, while the cultural events and sports activities made the camp more enjoyable.

Overall, CATC 2026 was a wonderful and meaningful experience that strengthened my discipline, patriotism, confidence, and sense of responsibility.
