Report on NAVAL UNIT NCC Cadet's Enrollment

Academic Year -2025-2026

First Batch

The Naval NCC Unit of Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science & Commerce successfully conducted its annual enrollment drive First Batch for the 2025–26 academic year on 22nd November 2025. The drive targeted first and second year Engineering students, as well as first year Non-Engineering degree programme students. 134 students are active participants for the enrollment, and a rigorous selection process identified 27 disciplined and motivated candidates are shortlisted. The final shortlisted group comprises 14 Senior Division (SD) boys and 13 Senior Wing (SW) girls. Designed to select highly dedicated individuals, the systematic process evaluated candidates on fitness, discipline, and merit. The successful induction ensures a strong, motivated cohort ready to uphold the values of the National Cadet Corps.

Enrollment Details

- Total Vacancies: Total number of available seats: 17.
- Number of Students Participated: 134.
- Number of Selected cadets: 17.
- Breakdown:
 - Senior Division (SD) Boys: 09.
 - Senior Wing (SW) Girls: 08.

The selection process was conducted in a fair and transparent manner by Mr. Hemant Uppala, Vice Principal, DSCASC, Dr. Gangadhar Ramadge CTO - NCC Officer, DSCASC, and PO - Mr. K Balakrishna, PO - Mr. Manjeet Officer's staff from the 1 KARNATAKA Naval Unit NCC.

The process was divided into the following phases:

- Phase 1: Documentation & Initial Screening: Verification of eligibility criteria including age, academic status, and submission of necessary documents like the Aadhaar card, and medical fitness certificate.
- Phase 2: Physical Fitness Test: Candidates underwent a physical assessment to check their stamina and fitness. This included running (200m for boys, 100m for girls), push-ups, and pull-ups etc.
- Phase 3: Written Test: A written examination was administered to assess general awareness, basic mathematics, and current affairs.
- Phase 4: Interview: Shortlisted candidates interacted with the PO NCC staff for a final assessment of their motivation, leadership potential, and overall suitability.

The selected cadets represent diverse academic streams within the college, bringing a variety of skills and backgrounds to the unit. They have demonstrated strong potential for leadership, discipline, and a keen interest in naval activities and community service.

Proposed Training and Activities

The newly enrolled cadets will undergo comprehensive institutional training for three years as per the prescribed Senior Division syllabus. Key training areas will include:

- Drill and weapon training
- Seamanship, navigation, and direction
- Ship modeling and boat-pulling
- First aid and physical fitness
- Participation in Annual Training Camps (ATC), national-level camps, and adventure activities like sailing expeditions
- Social service and community development programs

The successful enrollment of this new batch reinforces the college's commitment to grooming youth into disciplined and patriotic citizens. The NCC Naval Wing is confident that these cadets will bring laurels to the institution and contribute positively to the community through their dedication and hard work.
