24.	Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	Student grievance cell introduced the students to the system established for addressing their concerns related to academics, administration or personal matters. During the session, students were informed how to register a grievance, procedure to review and resolve issues and the importance of confidentiality and fairness in the process. The orientation encouraged the students to communicate openly and assured them that the college is committed to maintaining a safe , respectful and supportive campus environment.
