

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) RESEARCH AND IPR CELL (ANVESHANA) Action Taken Report for the duration June 2025 -May 2026

During the period from June 2025 to May 2026, the Research and IPR Cell (Anveshana ) continued its commitment to fostering a vibrant research culture by organising a wide range of faculty development programmes, capacity-building initiatives, workshops, seminars, and awareness programmes. The activities focused on strengthening research competencies, promoting ethical research practices, enhancing publication quality, creating awareness on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR), and equipping faculty members and students with contemporary research tools and methodologies. The initiatives also encouraged interdisciplinary collaboration, innovation, and academic excellence across departments. The following summary highlights the major initiatives undertaken during the reporting period.

1. Faculty Development Programmes (FDPs)

1. A two-day workshop on 'Patents & Copyrights Demystified: Step-by-Step Application Strategies for Researchers' was organised on 14 and 15 July 2025, enabling participants to understand the process of protecting intellectual property and filing patents and copyrights.
2. A two-day workshop on 'Data Analysis using IBM-SPSS', conducted on 25 and 26 July 2025, equipped faculty members with practical knowledge of statistical analysis and interpretation using SPSS for academic research.
3. A seminar on 'Impact-Driven Research Writing: Connecting Academic Excellence with Social Values', held on 23 August 2025, emphasised the importance of producing socially relevant and high-impact research publications.
4. A one-day programme on 'AI-Driven Innovation in Research Paper Writing and Publishing', organised on 13 September 2025, introduced participants to emerging artificial intelligence tools that support academic writing, manuscript preparation, and publication processes.
5. An AICTE Training and Learning (ATAL) Faculty Development Programme on 'Greening the Future: Advancing Agricultural Economy and Sustainability through Technology and Innovation' was conducted from 10 to 15 November 2025, bringing together a large number of faculty members to deliberate on sustainable development, technological advancements, and research opportunities in agriculture.
6. A seminar on 'Research Funding Opportunities and Grant Support', organised on 12 March 2026, provided valuable insights into identifying funding agencies, preparing competitive grant proposals, and securing research funding.
7. A five-day online Faculty Development Programme titled 'Advanced Strategies for Crafting Impactful Research Manuscripts' was conducted from 23 to 27 March 2026, enabling faculty members to strengthen their academic writing skills, improve publication quality, and understand the expectations of high-impact journals.

1.1 Journal Club Initiatives (BCA/MCA Department)

As part of the Journal Club activities coordinated by the BCA/MCA Department, sessions were organised to promote scholarly discussions and strengthen research capabilities among faculty members.

1. On 29 December 2025, a session titled 'Real-time Projects to Research Papers – Deriving Research Papers from Real-time Projects' guided participants on transforming practical projects into publishable research articles.
2. On the same day, another session, 'Seniors Speak: Gear Up to Write Your First Research Article – 101 Practical Tips (Series 3)', provided practical guidance on academic writing, manuscript preparation, and publication strategies for early-career researchers.
3. Further, a programme on 'Planning Your PhD: Methodology, Literature, and Execution', conducted on 9 March 2026, helped participants understand the key stages involved in planning and successfully executing doctoral research.

2. Capacity Building Programmes (CBPs)

Several capacity-building programmes were organised to strengthen students' research competencies and analytical skills.

1. A Finance Research Conclave, held on 26 July 2025, encouraged students to explore emerging research trends in finance and interact with experts from academia and industry.
2. A Student Capacity Building Programme on Advancing Financial Research, organised on 13 August 2025, enhanced students' understanding of financial research methodologies and analytical techniques.
3. An Expert Talk on 'Investment Analysis with AI Tools', conducted on 10 February 2026, introduced students to the application of artificial intelligence in investment decision-making and financial analysis.
4. Two specialised capacity-building programmes were organised on 26 and 27 February 2026, focusing on Equity Research and Research using Secondary Data, respectively. These programmes provided practical exposure to equity analysis, financial databases, and secondary data sources commonly used in research.

3. Seminars, Workshops and Guest Lectures

Several seminars and expert lectures were organised to enhance awareness of research ethics, publication practices, and intellectual property rights.

1. An IPR Poster Presentation for M.Com students, conducted on 2 December 2025, encouraged students to creatively demonstrate their understanding of Intellectual Property Rights.
2. A two-day workshop on 'AI-Assisted Scientific Writing and Publishing', held on 13 and 14 March 2026, familiarised participants with AI-enabled tools for academic writing while emphasising responsible and ethical usage.
3. A One-day Student Seminar on 'Research Integrity and Professional Accountability for Sustainable Career Development', organised on 14 March 2026, highlighted the importance of ethical research practices, academic honesty, and professional responsibility.
4. A Student Awareness Programme on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR), conducted on 12 March 2026, created awareness among students regarding patents, copyrights, trademarks, and innovation.

5. An Expert Talk on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR), organised on 26 March 2026, provided participants with practical insights into the protection and commercialisation of intellectual property.
6. A Guest Lecture on 'Importance of Patents in Business and Innovation', conducted on 20 May 2026, highlighted the strategic role of patents in promoting innovation, entrepreneurship, and competitive advantage.

4. Student Research and Innovation Activities

To promote research culture and intellectual engagement among students, the Research and IPR Cell organised 'Battle of Intellect' on 11 May 2026. The event provided students with an opportunity to showcase their analytical thinking, research aptitude, and problem-solving skills through a competitive academic platform.

Overall, the initiatives undertaken during the reporting period significantly contributed to strengthening research competencies, promoting innovation, encouraging ethical research practices, and enhancing awareness of Intellectual Property Rights among faculty members and students.
