The seminar covered important areas such as financial concepts, discipline, smart spending, saving habits, and the basics of investment. It emphasized the role of financial awareness in achieving long term stability and reducing financial stress. The content was well structured and easy to follow.

The sessions provided a comprehensive understanding of essential financial concepts such as budgeting, investment planning, taxation, and wealth management.

The FDP also emphasized the importance of financial awareness for personal stability and long-term sustainability, which is crucial not only for individuals but also for educators guiding students.

● overall, the programme was well-organized, insightful, and impactful. It has significantly improved confidence in managing personal finances and integrating financial literacy concepts into teaching practices.
