Feedback on

"Dr B R Ambedkar's Ethics and Values"

The session was a well-structured presentation on Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's values and ethics, moving beyond his role as architect of Indian Constitution to highlight his deeper moral vision for society. It began by placing Ambedkar's life in the context of social exclusion and showed how his experiences of discrimination shaped his commitment to equality, dignity and justice, supported by visuals on his background and intellectual journey. As the discussion progressed, the ideas flowed clearly, making the connection between thought and practice easy to follow. The session then explored his ethical philosophy, emphasizing dehoriya as a way of life rooted in moral conduct, with focus on equality beyond constitutional text, human dignity, education as empowerment, rational thinking and moral courage.
